

The MCJC Justice group meets by ZOOM on the 4th Thursday of each month.

The group has two ongoing projects:

Citizenship scholarships — we fund every person studying through the Fort Bragg High School citizenship class to take the USCIS exam to become US citizens. Through the scholarships we have assisted over 40 local people to become citizens. Some of our members also tutor citizenship students to prepare for their exam.

Indigenous Outreach — the Justice group is slowly building relationships with local Indigenous people through shared celebrations and by educating ourselves about the present and past experiences of local tribal people.

We are always open to other short and long-term projects which address injustice locally and beyond. For information please contact Donna Medley at dmthebeez@gmail.com or Rabbi Margaret Holub at mholub@mcn.org
